Re: *United States v. Dwight Reid et. al, S6 20 Cr. 626 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern:

The Government, after consulting with counsel for defendants Dwight Reid and Christopher Erskine, writes with respect to a potential trial in this matter.<sup>1</sup> The Court, at a status conference today, set the matter down for trial to begin on October 10, 2023. For reasons disclosed to defense counsel, that date is unfortunately unworkable for a trial. Counsel for defendants Dwight Reid and Christopher Erskine consent to moving the start date of the trial to any time between August 28, 2023 and September 18, 2023, or any time after October 30, 2023, except for the two weeks beginning on January 29, 2024.

Counsel for Reid and Erskine also do not oppose the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act beyond October 10, 2023 should the Court move the start date of the trial to after October 10. Such an exclusion record, today. See Minu

Application granted. Due to the Court's trial calendar, the first available date to commence trial in this matter, accommodating the parties' request, is October 30, 2023. Accordingly, trial is adjourned from October 10, 2023 to October 30, 2023. The Court will separately docket an Amended Pretrial Scheduling Order.

It is further ORDERED that time until October 30, 2023 is hereby excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(A), in the interests of justice, so that the parties may continue to discuss pretrial resolution, file motions in limine and pretrial submissions, and for the effective preparation of subsequent matters herein.

SO ORDERED.

Philip M. Halpern
United States District Judge

Dated: White Plains, New York

The parties are grateful for the Court's consideration and for the flexibility in its calendar.

Respectfully submitted,
